

Hospital Election Set For Wednesday

Wednesday, Sept. 4, is voting in Medina County to determine whether or not a county hospital is to be built, and as the "for" and "against" factions are holding more meetings in last minute efforts to win votes for their side, the election will be held Wednesday night in Castroville. Principal speaker at the Castroville meeting was Joe Briscoe, of Devine, who was introduced by Charlie Briscoe, followed by Victor Tondre, who has served as a hospital committee member. Such a committee was called on Elmo Pope of Hondo, but Pope declined a regular speech stating that he would prefer to enter in the question answer period. Pope answered some of the questions raised by both Briscoe and Tondre at the conclusion of their speeches, in order to get the questions answered this way. Briscoe is assuming, "that the people of Castro-ville are about 90 per cent opposed to this hospital proposition, but I will bring you some thoughts out from various sources of information."

"The cost involved, for the individual taxpayer, should not be the reason for opposing this, as, if the issue is carried out as announced, it will be reasonable enough that everyone will be able to afford it and a cost hardship would be on very few," Briscoe continued. "But the main reason is that the county is being asked to pay for a hospital which would see principally local use. Why should we build a hospital for Hondo?"

Pope answered this by stating that statistics proved that the privately owned hospital now in operation in Hondo had been used by patients from all over the county. Briscoe added that it was "just as easy for Devine people to go into San Antonio as it is to go to Hondo" to which Pope replied with a question — "Why, then Joe, were 21 babies born to Devine mothers in the Hondo hospital alone? If it was just as easy, why did the new Devine babies arrive in the Hondo hospital instead of San Antonio hospitals?" To this question, Briscoe laughed, shrugged his shoulders and said he could not answer that.

Pope then added that he believed there were only two ways a person from Medina County could get into a hospital in San Antonio at the present time and those were, one, in a real emergency a person might be admitted to the emergency rooms and treated by the staff doctors, which would not cost a person a cent unless he could pay for it, and two, for a doctor in Bexar County who is about admitting the patient from our area Dr. R.R. Eckert of Castroville Clinic confirmed this, adding further that patients from Medina County were usually sent on into San Antonio to see a specific doctor, less frequently sent in just to a specific hospital.

Pope then reminded them that we have no guarantee that the city hospitals will continue accepting patients of any kind from our area in the future as they are short many hospital beds themselves. He stated that hospitals in San Antonio have refused recently to do any type charity cases from Medina County sending back the word that this county must take care of its own charity cases.

Briscoe gave other arguments against the issue in his speech. Another was that "we have no assurance what the tax will be, but so far as I know there has been nothing put down in black and white as to the exact figures."

"Maybe the tax will be five per cent on a hundred dollar valuation for 30 years and maybe it will be at a higher rate for 50 years," he commented. "Once you start a tax, there is no stopping it."

In answering this argument, Pope stated that we had the word of the County Judge and Commissioners Court as to the maximum cost to taxpayers. "But," he said, "it could be less. If the bonding company handling these bonds is able to sell them at 3 1/2 per cent, then we'll all benefit."

Briscoe said he had been reading the series of articles on hospitals in a San Antonio newspaper and learned that two-thirds of the cost of operations was for salaries. He said the fact had never been made clear as to just who would run a county hospital if the tax issue passes. He stated that "the Hondo paper" had said there would be a 15 man board of governors and then predicted that politics would become involved here and the cost to the public would be great. "Are all these men to draw salaries, and are each of them to be allowed to hire their relatives?"

(Ed. Note: There has been no mention in any issue of the Anvil Herald of the number of governors to direct the hospital, only that the small group would probably be appointed by the county commissioners and the county judge.)

Pope explained that the board of governors is to be composed of five men, one appointed by the county judge and one each by the four county commissioners. They receive no pay for their services and the appointment is for life. It will be their job to hire an administrator and to make sure that he keeps the hospital running on a sound financial basis. He, not the board of governors, would do the hiring and firing of other employees to insure efficiency of operation.

Briscoe also said that it had been brought out in a meeting in Hondo that persons holding a poll tax could go now and assess property and still have the right to cast a vote in the election. "I have hunted through hundreds of my law books and no where do I find that such is legal, but perhaps I don't have the right law books," he continued that this situation could work both ways, however, that if the group advocating the hospital could go and render property at this time, so could those opposing it.

In summing up, Briscoe said, that on the tax basis, the cost would be prohibitive to no one, but that the real argument should be against the "in effect" city hospital. He said that one-sixth of the county valuations lay in the area of the Hondo Independent School District and that Hondo should build it.

Then it was Victor Tondre's time to speak. He started by saying that Briscoe had covered many of the points he intended to raise, but that he had a few others. "In LaCoste last night, we studied this notice of election and found that we have no assurance that the rate we pay would not continually rise until it is paid off. How do we know it will be 5 per cent for 30 years? Maybe it will be less than that, but like Briscoe says, maybe it will be more interest for a longer time."

"And another thing we noticed last night," Tondre continued.

"How come all four canvassers of the election listed on the election notice are from Hondo? If this is a county election, then some of the canvassers should be from over the county. And if that is the general pattern of the way things are going to run, then what can we look for next? If Hondo can carry this, (bond election) then what next? Hondo will keep asking for things and let it be paid for by the rest of the county."

Tondre went on, "The original tax is not a burden, but in every county rates are rising. Do we have any assurance that the rate will actually be what is stated on the notice of election?"

Victor Tondre's closing remarks concerned the getting out to vote of citizens. "I see where Hondo people are being told they can still render property and vote. I do not think this is right. They could render a wrist watch, vote, then leave a year later and (See HOSPITAL, Page 10)

County Doctors Back New Hospital

Doctors of Medina County have gone on record as favoring building of a new hospital and made statements to this effect. Dr. Leo Peters of Devine, Dr. R.W. Landers, and Joe Mims have wholeheartedly endorsed the project.

Dr. Landers is endorsing the plan call for better hospital facilities in Medina County.

"I am completely up-to-date in our area should greatly to the comfort and mind of everyone in Medina County. They will know in time of emergency, no one will be lacking to help save and make patients more comfortable."

On September 4, I shall vote for the hospital proposal," Dr. W. Landers, M.D.

Dr. Peters in a telephone conversation with Dr. Leo M. Peters of Wednesday morning, he said to say.

"I am entirely and emphatically for the County Hospital and calling all my patients this morning to vote FOR the hospital next Wednesday."

Medina County Hospital

By Bill Berger

Wednesday, September 4, is the day Medina county will decide the question of building a new hospital to serve our citizens.

The differences of opinion that have developed are unfortunate, but part of our rights as free people, and it is good that we are all able to say what we think.

This newspaper believes that the hospital should be built, and we also believe that the news should be covered, giving both sides of the argument for all to read. We are doing that in our news columns, as always.

From the talk against the hospital project made by Joe Briscoe in Castroville last week, we learn that "no one has denied the need for a hospital," and that "the cost is trifling to nearly all concerned, and should not be an issue."

If we agree with the opposition that the need is great, and that the cost to the average taxpayer would be trifling, then we are apparently faced with a complaint on where to put it.

One suggestion was that we should build one third of it in Devine, and two thirds in Hondo. This sounds fine, but if you put a small hospital in each town, you have to have two complete operating rooms, two complete laundries, two complete kitchens, and many other things. It may be an argument, but it is just that. One could as well have a third of the courthouse, a third of the county jail, a third of the National Guard armory — but for the fact that it is impractical and wasteful.

The geographic and highway center of the county is the fair place for the hospital, and the only place which would provide quick access to the greatest number of people. In an emergency, with an auto or ambulance driven at high speed, 95% of the population could reach Hondo within 20 minutes. There is far less traffic in this area, and we believe that an injured or sick person could be treated faster in this proposed hospital than under any other suggested method.

When 21 babies are born to Devine parents in one month in the present Hondo hospital, we believe that is fair evidence that Hondo is easy to reach, and more desirable than using crowded San Antonio facilities.

Probably no one who reads this will change their mind because of anything we can say. About all we can do is to list the reasons why we should vote FOR the hospital, and urge you to cast a ballot.

1. We need more and better hospital facilities for all of Medina county.
2. We can have them at a reasonable cost, with everyone paying a small amount in proportion to his ability to pay. Most taxpayers would contribute less than the cost of a carton of cigarettes each year.
3. We can have one half of the cost paid for by the Federal government. Certainly it is our money — our own income taxes. But this is an opportunity to see $200,000 of our Federal tax money come back home and do us some good.
4. It will save somebody's life, as certainly as the sun rises, to have a modern, well-equipped hospital no more than 20 minutes away. It will save many lives, and one of them could be your own.
5. The present hospital operators in Hondo are close to retirement age, and have expressed their desire to sell their property for use as a convalescent home. Let's not crowd our luck too long, as it takes time to plan and build a new hospital.

Car Stolen, Recovered Same Night

Julio Martinez Flores, 24, of 419 16th St., was arrested near Castroville Sunday night after he abandoned a car he had stolen in Hondo.

Flores, who is currently under three years probation in Big Springs for car theft, was picked up by highway patrolmen about midnight Sunday near a roadside park south of Castroville. He had only walked about 300 yards from the stolen automobile when he was apprehended, officers said. Flores was turned over to Medina County authorities and is being held in the Medina County jail on $1,000 bond.

The stolen car belonged to Jose Perez, of Hondo. He reported the car stolen about 9:30 Sunday night, after he left the movie theatre in Hondo and did not find it where he left it. The car was returned to him undamaged.

Bobby Swatzell To Lose Hand

Doctors said Wednesday that Bobby Swatzell, 17, would lose his left hand but most of his arm could be saved.

Swatzell, who is the son of Hondo Chief of Police Orby Swatzell, was injured in an auto accident at the south entrance of Hondo Air Base Aug. 6. In the accident, his car overturned, mangle his left arm, which was outside the vehicle.

The boy is being treated in Santa Rosa Hospital in San Antonio. Doctors there said the line of amputation would be "somewhere between the wrist and the elbow."

BOHLEN LOSS $1,100

In last week's Anvil Herald, a local fireman stated that fire damages to the John Bohlen home in Dunlay were estimated at $300. Damages were actually $1,100 to that home as the result of a fire last Saturday.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

BY JERRY JUNE BERGER

Add to the list of Colorado vacationers the names of Mr. and Mrs. ARCHIE SWANSON. They are just back from a fishing and camping trip into the high mountain area. CONNIE reports that fishing was excellent, the weather cold and wet—the temperature ranging from the low 40's at night to the middle 60's during the day. On the way up they spent an enjoyable weekend in Santa Fe and on the way home, one at Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Heading in the same general direction on Aug. 17th were BEN CROW, his mother, MRS. J.W. CROW, 89, and CAM MAPLES, 12. This trio traveled to Taos, N. Mex. above the timber line and ran part of the way in a blinding snowstorm, BEN says. MRS. CROW is as rugged as the next person—they camped out part of the time. On the return trip they came back through White Sands to El Paso. The vacation lasted six days.

And while some Hondoans were vacationing, others were entertaining granddaughters. MARTHA and KATHRYN FLYNN of Silver City, N. Mex., spent two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. CARL PORTER, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. BOB KING of Dallas and MISS MABEL JOHNSON of South Dakota, were here visiting the PORTERS, and the two young ladies returned to Dallas with them before heading back for their home in the west.

Mrs. Porter, incidentally, had a rather hectic July. She had children and grandchildren in both New Mexico and Arizona with Asiatic flu, one grandson even developing pneumonia, so she went out to help. Fortunately all concerned made complete recoveries, and MRS. PORTER brought her granddaughters home with her for a visit.

PA

The granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.S. MACMANUS, DEANN DRAKE of near Phoenix, Ariz. is here on a two week visit also. She was joined for part of her visit by MARY ANN KOETHE of San Antonio, a niece of MRS. MAC. The latter commented that she had never seen so many petticoats in one place as were about her house over the weekend.

MAC was escorting the girls about the Fireman's Carnival grounds Saturday night.

PA

While on the subject of the carnival we might mention that MRS. FRITZ (NAOMI) LEINWEBER came out a big winner—taking home several prizes from the affair, and MRS. LILLIAN DANIE was first prize winner at the drawing.

At the cake stand we overheard WALTER MEYER inquiring of MRS. F. H. (MA) HOLLIG as to whether or not there was a prune cake on the place. There wasn't, but she said she would bake him one sometime.

School Superintendent CUB BARRY says that persons who want football tickets for the season, who have not held them in years past, must get them through the high school business office where a complete lay-out of Barry Field is available. Tickets for individual games or season tickets for those who have had them in previous years, may be picked up at the city offices.

He said Monday that only 20 boys were out for football this year. Our first game is here on Sept. 6 when Jourdan comes over.

PA

Not many youngsters will admit that they actually want to start back to school, but young MARCIA STRAIT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. JOHN STRAIT, has gone one step beyond this. A second-grader-to-be, she has told her parents that she simply is not going to start. Next Tuesday should prove to be an interesting day in the STRAIT household if she really plans to carry out her declaration.

GEORGE MUENNINK was the principal loser when a barn at his father's place burned recently. He was in the process of moving his household goods from Del Rio to Beeville and had temporarily stored them in the W.G. MUENNINK barn while searching for a suitable home in Beeville, and everything was destroyed by the blaze.

Three cars were parked nearby, but they were moved when the fire was discovered. The last to be moved was that of JACK LANDERS and a glass cracked on a rear window, probably due to the heat.

THEY NEED OUR HELP!

THE PUBLIC AND YOU

Too many organizations are falling down on the "follow-through" in publicity—particularly for annual or special meetings.

Publicity before the meeting is usually easy to secure because editors recognize such meeting announcements as public service and because they often are fully aware that the "advance" story is the only thing they're going to hear about the meeting.

Too often an organization sits back waiting for a reporter to appear, and if one does then he can "get his own story, can't he?" But, even though invited to send reporters, most small town papers are shorthanded and cannot spare a reporter to cover every meeting in the area. Often, the "reporter" is the editor or publisher himself who also has to set type, sell ads and, literally, sweep out.

Editors, however, are used to being ignored after a meeting—all clubs or organizations have the same failing. So the rare group which does come around with a follow-up story usually gets an unusual amount of "space," often far more than the event or the organization deserves. The editor, particularly if he is understaffed, is seeking things to fill the paper—and the story that "comes in the front door" is the easiest to get.

Follow-through publicity service to editors is not difficult. No degree in journalism is required. No fancy stories are necessary.

All the editor really wants to know is what happened, how many were there, who was elected, what future projects were discussed, and when and where will the next meeting be held.

A simple "fact sheet" answering those questions is all that is required. Or, perhaps easier, the secretary can make it a point to call the editor with that information. Either way, the editor will have the basic information from which he, or a staff writer, can whip out a story.

Most important factor though is speed. Find out in advance when your newspaper editor will need the information. Then get it there before that deadline. A weekly paper is going to be mighty stingy with space for a story that could have been in a week earlier if the publicity chairman or secretary had just made the call on time. So spend an extra minute or dime in calling the information in or in mailing it or delivering it before the deadline.

There is an old axiom in the news business: "Many good stories have been lost because somebody forgot to phone or thought a three-cent stamp was good enough."

Alongside The Experts In Fighting Against Inflation

Editor's note: The Seco Pholosopher on his Johnson grass farm is back on the topic of inflation, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:
Like a lot of other people, I have been giving considerable thought lately to the problem of inflation, which is not the most exciting topic to think about but it beats plowing.

According to the economic index and my grocery bill, the cost of living has been going up a little every month for the last 18 months, and every time it goes up, it means a general increase in prices and wages, which in turn sends the cost of living up a little more, and if it keeps it up anybody can see it'll get completely out of hand.

Consequently, I was pleased to read in an article in a newspaper yesterday afternoon which I had been using to put on my tractor seat while I went to get a drink of water to shade it from the sun, anybody knows what happens to a tractor seat when it's left in the sun fifteen or twenty minutes in August, and when a puff of wind blew this paper off and left the seat too hot to sit on, there wasn't anything else for me to do but take the paper to the shade of a tree and read, and consequently as I started to say, I was pleased to read that some of the best minds in the country are working on the problem of inflation.

According to Gardner C. Menas, one of the top economists in the country, inflation is caused by "administered prices," by which he means prices aren't allowed to follow the law of supply and demand, people just set a price they figure they ought to get or can get, and by a quirk of human nature the price is always up, not down.

Therefore, he says what we ought to do is stop raising prices and wages for one year, while we study the problem of mounting inflation.

I think this is a good idea and I am pleased to know that one of the nation's top economists has finally caught up with us farmers.

As you know, me and the rest of the farmers of this nation haven't raised prices in the last 12 months. I will go even further. We haven't raised em in the last 5 years. I'll pay my subscription to The Anvil Herald five years in advance if anybody will point out to me any farmer or rancher in Medina County who has raised the price of anything he sells in the last five years. Personally, the last time I raised the price of anything was the time I raised the price of a steer in 1949. I priced it at what I figured I ought to get, and bowed my neck and held out. The steer died of old age.

So, if American business and American labor will follow the pattern set by us farmers and flat refuse to raise prices for one year, we'll give this new idea a complete test. I sure is lonesome testing it all by ourselves.
Yours faithfully J.A.

STILL ON THE STORY OF A TEXAS PIONEER

Completing Another Chapter Of The Santleben Story

"Nothing else happened to me while I carried the mail that was of any consequence, except once, when I was thrown from a wild mule I was riding, which, incidentally, caused considerable excitement. He was a skittish beast, and so easily frightened he would frequently snort and jump suddenly to one side when nothing was in sight but his shadow. Generally I was on my guard, but that evening I was careless, and when he made a quick bound sideways I was thrown out of the saddle to the ground. Before I recover my feet he darted away at the top of his speed with my mail-bag and I had to walk to Bandera, a mile or two distant. When I related what had happened, my story enlisted the services of all the men in the town, but their search was unsuccessful until late the following evening, when the brute was brought in and I was glad to know that the mail-bag was safe. The next morning I started for home, feeling badly at the thought that I was a day behind because it was the first time such a thing had happened. When within twelve miles from home I was surprised to meet my father with a party of neighbors on their way to look for me. Among them was Dan Adams, Sam Etter, John Bippert, Tab Woodward, Jim Brown and others. They were all very much relieved when they saw me, because they thought I had either been killed or captured by the Indians.

The mailroute was in existence one year and ten months, and in that time I made about one hundred round trips, each averaging sixty-four miles, without failing to be on time except on the occasion to which I have referred, and that was not my fault. When my youth is considered, in connection with the fact the country was infested with roving bands of Indians who were continually depredating upon the people and committing many murders, I have a right to flatter myself on the record I made. It is evident that I escaped numerous dangers and I feel grateful for my good fortune. Although I carried a six-shooter as long and heavy as that worn by Bigfoot Wallace, or any other Indian fighter, it is an open question whether I would have used it, in case of an encounter with Indians, or would have trusted, instead, to the speed of my good horse, Sam, who carried me on nearly all of my journeys.

"All mail contracts granted by the United States government in Texas were canceled in 1861, at the commencement of the Civil War, and of course Alex David discontinued his services. When my father's sub-contract was annulled a sum amounting to about five hundred dollars was due him for carrying the mail; but neither he nor his heirs have been able to recover a cent from the government on the account; consequently all my services in that connection were performed for nothing unless the claim still pending in Washington should be favorably considered in the future.

"The great Civil War was initiated and Texas became involved in that lamentable struggle, but I do not intend to discourse the subject. I will only say that my father, like many other good citizens, voted against secession, but, after the measure was carried, he submitted to the laws of the land and directed his attention to his legitimate business. Partly with a view to giving me employment, he engaged in freighting cotton from Columbus to Eagle Pass, and I drove an oxteam between those points until September, 1862.

but the occupation was not such as I fancied. I was then nearly seventeen years of age, and in December of that year I visited Eagle Pass on my personal account, with the intention of making my own way in the world. I entertained no political prejudices, nor was there any necessity for me to take sides in the war, on account of my age, consequently it had nothing to do with my visit to the Mexican border. Afterwards I passed over the Rio Grande, and did not again return to Texas for several years, but my experiences until then will be related in the following chapter.

Dove Season Opens September 1

It's time to drag the shotgun from the corner in the closet and open off the line. The 1957 dove season will begin Sunday, Sept. 1, for mourning doves in the north zone, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission.

Thirty days later the season will open in the south zone. The seasons extend: north zone, Sept. 1 to Oct. 17 inclusive; south zone, Oct. 1 to Nov. 17, inclusive.

The white wing season has been authorized for the Rio Grande Valley area for Sept. 13, 15, 17. The dove bag limit is 10 per day, with 10 in possession.

Shooting is allowed from noon to sunset. Under federal and state regulations all shotguns must be plugged to three-shell capacity. Shooting from vehicles or across the highways is prohibited.

The director issued warning to hunters to make arrangements with land owners for their hunts. Three East Texas counties, Jasper, Tyler and Newton, will have no open season. In a local bill, these counties were excluded from the general laws and a special season is set up. This special season is in conflict with the federal laws.

Reports from all over the state indicate the largest dove crop in years. It is estimated that some 50,000 white-wings will be available for the valley hunt.

Mourning doves are plentiful now in every area. Unless there is a drastic change in weather conditions before Sept. 1, they are expected to remain in the local areas. Cooler weather or rains would change this condition. Water hole shooting also can be affected greatly, especially if heavy rains fill new water holes, providing too much water in various areas where food is available.

"Every safety precaution should be used," the director said. "Hunting season usually brings on several accidental deaths, due entirely to carelessness." He also warned that all persons between the ages of 17 and 65 need licenses when hunting outside their home counties. These licenses now are available from wardens and other authorized license dealers throughout the state.

"It has been one of the great blessings of my life to have been associated with you good people during these nearly six years of my ministry. We haven't accomplished nearly what we would have liked, but you might be interested in a few figures. The membership has grown from 145 to near 400; gifts to the mission causes have grown from $1,430 to $6,788.71; S. S. has grown from an enrollment of 150 to 253 with an average attendance from 74 to 136 this year. T. U. from enrollment of 53 and an average attendance 23 to an enrollment of 80 with an average attendance of 43.

"There have been about 291 total additions, with 121 coming for baptism. The total gifts to mission causes has been $33,550.98; total gifts to all causes $143,297.63.

"The good that has been accomplished, the lives that have been touched for God, the souls that have been won to Christ cannot be evaluated. Even the slightest and least thing done for the glory of God will have its glorious effect and reward.

"We assure you of our prayers and pray God's richest blessings on you and your work for Him. We shall be watching with hopeful anticipation of your continued growth and progress."

Burglar Nabbed In Leakey

A 25 year old former Medina County resident has confessed to burglarizing two Hondo taverns Sunday and Monday.

Being held in the Medina County jail, on two counts of burglary with bond pending is Francisco (Frank) Contreras, of Midland. Contreras was apprehended in Leakey Tuesday morning by Olin C. Wright, sheriff of Real County and turned over to the Hondo authorities.

The youthful burglar was caught in the act at the Tropical Inn Monday night about midnight by Medina County sheriff's deputies, but eluded officers in the darkness. In making his escape, however, Contreras left a 22 calibre rifle with the letters "FC" on it, which proved to be a clue to his identity and later to his apprehension.

10 YEARS AGO

Henry M. Finger of Hondo has been appointed District Deputy Inspector of the 11th District, Veteran of Foreign Wars, following nomination for that position by District Commander Donald Dill of Uvalde.

College Building Amendment was thoroughly trenched in Medina County last Saturday when voters turned it down 288-86 in a remarkably heavy vote.

Gabe Hans knows how to cook beans, according to the thousands who sampled them at Castroville last Sunday at the St. Louis Church celebration and Homecoming. He said the most important thing in cooking 150 pounds of dry beans is to keep the bacon out of the mixture until nearly done.

After months of being wooed and courted by Rice, Tulane, A&M, and a number of other schools, the bashful football groom, Blanton Taylor, this week turned down all other suitors with a sweet "I do" cooed in the eager ear of coach Homer Norton of Texas A&M.

20 YEARS AGO

Castroville — The highway Department is working out the preliminaries of the new bridge and 100 feet of right-of-way through the town of Castroville and are expecting work to begin shortly.

For the month of August 1937 total rainfall was 81 inches; since January 1st, 14.04 inches. Temperature was highest on the 10th, 106°F; lowest on 6th and 31st, 71. A good general rain is needed.

D'Hanis — Hondo lost the first game of the play-off to Luling at Luling last Sunday by a score of 5 to 4. The game was a pitchers' battle between Valigura and Sadler. Home runs by Valigura and August Finger featured.

30 YEARS AGO

A new tennis court has been erected on the lot just east of the Methodist Parsonage. Businessmen have contributed toward expense of building and upkeep but the work of hauling gravel, clay for topping, and putting up the backstops. It will be under the supervision of the Methodist Church and is for the use of anyone.

The Castroville Indians were defeated Sunday afternoon by the Post Laundry boys of San Antonio.

Frank Brown, discoverer of the Ina Oil Fields, and whose discovery finally led to the discovery of the big gas field further down on a body of land including the Conover and Crain Ranches.

Court action probably will be resorted to under the Gas and Oil conservation laws to bring about cessation of alleged waste of Gas from a well in Medina County, according to Attorney General Joe Brown. The well has been running wild for over a month and between four and six million cubic feet of gas is escaping daily.

The biggest land deal for some time was consummated here this week when Claude W. Gilliam purchased the J.W. Monkhouse farm north of Hondo for a consideration of $22,000. The Gilliam place east of town was traded in as part of the consideration. Hugh Woods began the erection of a magnificent ten-room residence on the farm for Mr. Gilliam.

Hondo was thronged with soldier boys last Sunday. They were home from the training camps to spend the day with relatives and friends, all of whom were glad to see the boys again. No bunch of boys ever wore Uncle Sam's uniform with more becoming dignity than "our" boys, and we feel that none will give a better account of themselves on the field of honor.

Car lot shipments from here this week were eight cars of cattle, one of Hogs, and one of Ice.

One of the crying needs of this town is an ice factory. If one of our gin men would use the between season idleness of his engine to drill a well and secure his own water supply and then put in an ice factory we believe the enterprise would pay big dividends on the investment.

A double team hitched at the Hondo Mercantile Store Monday about eleven o'clock became frightened, broke loose and ran full speed across the railroad track and down center street narrowly missing other vehicles on the street until they reached McClaugherty and Horgan's Livery Stable where the buggy collided with a wagon standing on the side of the street. The shock threw the top off the buggy and snapped the harness like strings, leaving the buggy where it struck the wagon. The horses continued some distance below the stable where they were turned and with fragments of the harness hanging to them ran back up the street and were stopped in town. Fortunately, in all the melee, no one was hurt.

Dear Friend:

Now that the session is ending it is time for Texans to pause and take stock of the future. What can we expect as a result of this Congress?

The most important developments lie in the field of water. Waco can look forward to construction of a badly needed reservoir.

The Cooper Reservoir leaves the planning stage and enters the construction phase.

Planning work will go forward on Lampasas Reservoir. Construction on the Ferrells Bridge Reservoir will advance almost to the completion stage.

These are the tangible results from the Public Works bill. But something far more important is involved. It is money for surveys of the Texas streams.

Texas stands on the threshold of tremendous growth. The Gulf Coast may well become the industrial center of America. Already we have the world's largest synthetic rubber plant; a petrochemical industry second to none; a hustling and progressive steel company.

But industry-like agriculture and like individuals—cannot live without water. And Texas still needs to do something about water resources—in fact, some experts estimate that we are 25 years behind the other Western states.

Look for action in the field of water. The Bureau of Reclamation and the Army Engineers are finally working together. They have promised an overall plan or the beginning of a plan by next Spring.

It will represent a big job. It may take 25 to 30 years—plus one and one-third billions of dollars in Federal funds. The money will have to be matched by State and local contributions.

This is one issue upon which Texans must not be divided. Texans must unite to approve this program and bring it to reality.

But big or little, it is a job that must be done. The future of Texas rests upon the outcome.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

TOUR SUCCESS

Approximately 100 farmers, ranchers, and business people attended the conservation field day tour Aug. 20. The tour was co-sponsored by the Medina Valley Soil Conservation District and the Devine Chamber of Commerce.

The group gathered at the Devine High School and left at 8:45. The first stop was made on the Emiel vanDamme farm where an irrigation reservoir and underground plastic pipe was observed.

The next stop was made on Mrs. T.L. Ernst's farm, where root-plowing and seeding was observed. The farm had been rootplowed and seeded in May, 1956 and all grass was up to perfect stand. She had 11 cows with calves grazing on 18 acres, as they had been for 3 weeks, and very little grass was gone. A clipping was made to determine the pounds per acre on the area, and it showed that 17,000 pounds of air dry hay was there. Leaving half the grass produced for soil protection, this still leaves 8,500 pounds that can be utilized for cattle.

The third stop was made on A. M. Denn's farm, where terrace construction was observed. Terraces are built to prevent erosion and hold needed moisture. Terraces were constructed with a 20 foot base width and 1.3 feet in height.

The last stop was made on P.S. Keller's farm where a demonstration of rootplowing and seeding was held. Keller plans to rootplow 40 acres and seed to blue panic at the same time.

Fritz Senne, who farms seven miles south of Hondo, says that his rootplowing and seeding, done the first of the year, is six feet tall. He says the grass is solid and seems to get thicker every day, that the cattle are grazing it and have made very little showing on it. One thing that amazes him is the blue panic stays so green while other grasses are dry.

SCS NEWS

Shred and leave your crop residue on the surface. It will be worth more on the surface than if plowed under. It will protect the soil from wind and water erosion, and also reduce the evaporation of moisture from the soil.

New Fountain MYF Has Meeting

About twenty young people attended the monthly meeting of the New Fountain MYF at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lindeburg, Aug. 7, at 8 p.m.

Singing of the hymn "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" opened the meeting, followed by a responsive reading. The group selected topics they would like to discuss at their next meeting. The session closed with everyone tanding and repeating The Lord's Prayer in unison.

The young folks played games and had refreshments of ice cream and soda water.

OIL NEWS

G. & W. Oil and Gas Co., Inc., of Victoria plans to drill another test in the Chicon Lake Field about five miles south of La Coste. The 450-foot test is the No. 6 J. H. Lamon.

It is near the No. 5 Lamon which has been brought in as a producer. The No. 5 well was drilled to 453 feet with pay topped at 436 feet in the Navarro. It produced six barrels of oil daily, 19 gravity and no water.

The Lamon wells are in the Wm. Hawkins Survey 65, just east of the Mann Road.

Another new location is the Skinner & Martin No. 4 Mrs. Jie Reilly, 5,000-foot wildcat test about 15 miles northwest of Hondo. It is on a 640-acre lease in the Richard Reilly Survey, section 142, 330 feet from west line and 660 feet from south line of section.

M. L. Wise is scheduled to have drilled his No. 5 Joseph Gross, 500-foot test in the Chicon Lake Field three miles southwest of La Coste. It is about 490 feet north-east of the No. 2 Gross, which was a dry hole.

State Capitol NEWS

New faces, new jobs enter the Capitol scene as laws passed in the last Legislative session go into effect.

A consolidated Texas Securities Board swung into action with a Chairman Maurice Block of Fort Stockton that "all doubts (about securities issues) will be resolved in favor of the buying public."

Also appointed to the board by Gov. Price Daniel were Jay A. Phillips of Houston and Pete Rhodes of Emory. An attorney, Rhodes is former president of the State Bar of Texas. Phillips is a certified public accountant, former president of the Texas Society of CPAs and present chairman of the State Board of Public Accountancy. Rhodes is president of the First National Bank in Emory.

Board members selected William King to be acting securities commissioner, a full-time, $10,000-a-year job. He is a former assistant attorney general and had charge of securities in the secretary of state's office.

Approving or disapproving proposed issues of both general and insurance securities will constitute the prime duties of the new agency. Formerly, these functions were divided between the Insurance Department and Secretary of State's office. It also will supervise the licensing of securities dealers and salesmen.

Governor Daniel called the new law an "outstanding measure for protecting the public against fraud and swindling."

YOUTH COUNCIL

Frank M. Wilson of Waco will be chairman of the new Texas Youth Council.

Other members named by Daniel are Louis Henna of Round Rock and Robert Kneebone of Houston.

New agency replaces the old Youth Development Council. It will have charge of the three state correctional schools for young people and the Corsicana State Home, the Waco State Home, and the Blind, Deaf and Orphan School at Waco.

Wilson is a Waco attorney and instructor at Baylor University School of Law. Henna, a member of the old Youth Council, was one of the founders of the Baptist Children's Home in Round Rock. A banker, Kneebone has been active in youth work in Houston.

SCHOOL STUDY PANEL

Six legislators and two private citizens are early appointees to a new committee to study the growth problems of Texas public schools.

Named by Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey are Sens. George Parkhouse of Dallas, A.M. Aikin Jr. of Paris and Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford plus former Atty. Gen. John Ben Sheppard of Odessa and Laredo school superintendent J. W. Nixon.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr named Reps. Scott McDonald of Fort Worth, L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi and Malcolm McGregor of El Paso.

Full committee will number 24. Ramsey and Carr were directed by law to pick three legislators and three laymen. Governor Daniel and the State Board of Education are to pick six more each.

One proposal made during the session was to have the state build school buildings and lease them to districts. Numerous Texas officials have opposed federal aid for school building.

HOUSE COMMITTEES

A long list of groups has been set up by Speaker Carr to study basic state problems and report to the 56th Legislature. They include:

Legislative Budget Board — Reps. Max Smith of San Marcos, Fates S. Seeligson of San Antonio, William S. Healy of Paducah, J.T. Ellis Jr. of Westlake.

Legislative Council — Reps. Robert Hughes of Dallas, Wesley Roberts of Lamesa, A.R. Schwartz of Galveston, Tony Koriath of Sherman, James M. Cotten of Weatherford, R.H. Cory of Victoria, Menton J. Murray of Harlingen, Alonzo W. Jamison Jr. of Denton, Don Kennard of Fort Worth and Harold B. Parish of Taft.

State Tax Study Commission — Reps. Seeligson, Richard C. Slack of Pecos and John A. Huebner Sr. of Bay City.

Full list includes 12 committees — even a committee to study the committees.

HARVEST TIME

Typical hot, dry August weather has been good for harvesting, but hard on pasturage and late crops.

Dry weather and insects stunt the cotton in central, southeast and coastal counties, U.S. Dept. of Agriculture reported, but better yields are expected in the northern half of the state.

However, USDA noted northern crops are two to three weeks late and could be damaged by an early freeze.

EGG DEALERS GET LICENSE

State Agriculture Department is in the process of licensing some 36,000 egg producers, handlers, and sellers.

New egg grading law will be in effect Oct. 22. Enforcement will begin Feb. 17, 1958.

Exempt from the license requirement are retailers who sell less than a case of eggs a week to persons other than consumers and producers who do not claim a certain grade for their eggs.

TEXAS LEADS IN ROADS

Texas is out in front in the interstate highway building program with 293 miles of roads "in the mill."

These are projects which are either under construction, contracted or advertised for bids. Cost will be $86,000,000 with $76,000,000 coming from federal funds.

California is ahead of Texas in cost of projects, but second in mileage. It has 95.5 miles underway at a cost of $96,000,000.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas prison population increased 7.5 per cent last year for a total of 9,268 persons behind bars. National average increase was 2.2 per cent. National average is 102 prisoners per 100,000 population; Texas ratio is 106 per 100,000.

Texas Railroad Commission retained the lowest-in-history 13-day producing pattern for the Texas oil industry in September. Several weeks ago President Eisenhower asked oil companies to cut their imports by 10 per cent. But Texas commissioners said the request had not as yet brought any increase in demand for Texas oil.

"Intangible assets" evaluated for tax purposes in Texas hit an all-time high of $139,790,050 this year, reported Comptroller Robert S. Calvert. These include such things as the equipment of railroads, pipelines, bus and truck lines.

J. E. Connally of Abilene will head the October "Dollars for Democrats" drive, state party headquarters in Austin announced. Goal will be to get at least one dollar from each Democrat in the state.

Texas Railroad Commission is considering the request of some 30 bus lines operating in Texas for a five per cent increase in fares. Two bus lines also have asked for a hike in commuter fares. A decision is not expected for several weeks.

Most hens apparently took a mid-summer vacation. USDA reported Texas egg production down 9 per cent in July to 182 million eggs.

Here in Hondo

Mrs. Joe Roberts and daughter, Edith, of Minot, N. Dakota, have been guests of Mrs. Roberts sister, Mrs. Frederick Bohnfalk this week. While here they visited friends and other relatives. They left Wednesday for New Braunfels to be the guests of Mrs. Robert's other daughter, Mrs. Bob Maddox, the former Jeanette Roberts.

Dr. and Mrs. R.W. Landers and sons are expecting Mrs. Landers' parents, M&M L.A. Wright of Milford, for a weekend visit.

AVIATION CADET Howard J. Bear has been selected Hondo Air Base's winner in the Cadet of the Month competition. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bear of Kalispell, Montana.

Cadet Bear is a member of Class 58-Mike, which is currently undergoing USAF Primary Pilot Training at Hondo Air Base. He won the award for being outstanding in the field of military training.

An all-expenses paid weekend trip to a popular Texas resort was one of the awards. Also included was a luncheon at a local civic club accompanied by t. Col. John C. O'Donnell, the Base Commander, and a citation from Col. O'Donnell.

KILGORE'S CAPITOL COMMENTS

This will be my last newsletter of the session since there is an increasing likelihood that the Congress soon will adjourn.

UNLESS SOMETHING HAPPENS . . . between now and adjournment I will have ended the session with another 100 per cent record on roll calls. I have answered yea or nay on every record vote and have been present and answered every quorum call.

NOT EVERYONE . . . will agree with me on all the votes, of course. But it is some satisfaction to me, as I hope it is to you, that I am recorded on all questions on which there has been a roll call.

ACTUALLY . . . I have not missed a single vote in any of these three sessions since coming to Congress. In addition to that, in the last two sessions I have not missed a single quorum call and I missed only one in the first session in 1955. As you know, a quorum call occurs when a member raises a point of order that a quorum is not present and the roll is called to establish a quorum.

THIS SESSION . . . has had its accomplishments and its disappointments. The greatest accomplishment has been in the direction of restoring economy to national government. We made considerable improvement, but there is a long way to go. We need to work even harder for economy next session. The danger is that the fire for economy may die out and the budget go back up again.

We must not forget that pressures for spending are continuous and seemingly never ending. In order to sustain an economy drive, widespread public opinion and action are necessary.

AS A RESULT . . . of our economies this session the House Ways and Means Committee will begin tax hearings in January.

THE ADJOURNMENT . . . will help this situation. Here in Washington partisan political action sometimes looks important. At home it becomes obvious that only results count.

I HOPE TO SEE YOU . . . before long. We will be in McAllen soon after adjournment. I will open an office there and you may reach me by mail either there or in Washington. I will continue to stay in close touch with the office in Washington.

leave us with the bills to pay. I don't think people should do this." He then urged everyone to make it a point of seeing that all qualified voters, for or against, get out to vote.

(Ed. Note: A letter dated Aug. 20, was mailed to taxpayers in the eastern part of the county urging them to "declare any item of value (wrist watch, car, etc.)...and be eligible to vote in this important election," signed by Victor Tondre and others.)

Louis Hart of Castroville asked several questions concerning the tax rate and the sale of bonds. He inquired as to whom had been asked to handle the bond matter and what would happen if they could not dispose of the bonds at the specified rate of 5 per cent.

Pope answered that Dittmar and Company had been employed by the Commissioners Court to handle the bond issue and that their representative had told the court that since Medina County has such an excellent credit rating, he thought they could sell the bonds for the county at 3 1/2 or 3 3/4. Briscoe said he doubted this since the State of Texas had been offering Veterans Land Bonds at 3 per cent and had no takers.

If the bonds could be sold for 3 1/2, then that would amount to quite a saving over the five per cent rate which is the maximum guarantee.

Hart did not seem to understand that the five percent was the most that he could be charged, but Ralph Tschirhart, who has worked with some bond issues for the City of Castroville, assured him that it was; that if they found no market for five percent or less, the whole thing would have to be voted over — that figure being the absolute maximum.

Hart asked how much Dittmar and Company would get out of the proposition, but no one seemed to know. However according to County Judge Rothe, they are paid a nominal fee — they have a flat rate that they charge for doing a specific job.

A priest from St. Louis Catholic Church stated, "I ask this question with an open mind, as I have not decided whether I am for or against a county hospital. But since we do have a hospital in Castroville, of what advantage would a county hospital be to the citizens of our community?"

Pope told him that it was 15 miles from Castroville to Hondo, 25 from Castroville to San Antonio and that the new hospital would have more advantages for Medina County citizens than they would find in crowded San Antonio.

During Briscoe's speech, he made the statement that the hospital would not be built until 1960 and said, "Are we to pay interest all this time?" Pope told him that he did not know where he had picked up the 1960 date, as to his knowledge, it had been mentioned — the middle of 1959 is when the hospital is supposed to be ready for patients. He said that if the bond election passed on Sept. 4, he had been told by a state health department official that federal funds could match this county money on Sept. 9 when Hill-Burton federal funds are allocated in the state. "But," he said, "we surely will not start paying out anything until the contractors start needing money. If a farmer needs money in January, he might make arrangements for it in August, but he surely would not get it and start paying interest until January when he needed it."

And this raised another question. Dr. Eckert said he was surprised to hear Pope state that the money could be available only five days after the election as he had done quite a bit on investigating of Hill-Burton funds and did not know they were readily available. Pope told him that because Medina County is considered one of the most needy counties in Texas for securing hospital facilities, one of the men from the
